

Morsels for the Mind Book Group

Date: September 15, 2011

Book Title: Claude and Camille, by Stephanie Corwell

Hostess: Laura Lewkowksi

Food Served: Kir Royale, Mini Quiche Croque Monsieur, Brie w/ lavender honey & almonds, goat cheese w/ basil & tomatoes, baguettes

Book Synopsis:

The story of young Claude Monet & his wife Camille, & their life together as a struggling couple. We learn about his artist friends, and how hard it was to become a respected (and paid) artist. Claude's love for Camille

Review: was often overshadowed by their poverty & they would separate often so he could work on his art to earn $.

Highlights of Discussion:

Laura had a popup version of the garden @ Overmy, in addition to a DVD of photos taken when she was at Monet's garden last summer.

Attendance:

Nancy S, Nancy D, Nancy M, Ginny, Julie

Suggestions/ Business:

We discussed & selected restaurants for our Christmas dinner, deciding upon The Heritage. Julie will email all dates for approval.