Book Title: The Persian Pickle Club by Sandra Dallas

Hostess: Nancy Schellenberg

Food served: Bread pudding, carrots and celery, dip, iced tea, pop, coffee. Pickled mushrooms and olives.

Book Synopsis: 1930's in Harveysville Kansas: a quilting club meets to quilt and gossip. A new member from Denver joins and tries to investigate a local murder.

Review:

Generally positive reviews for a quick read. Entertaining, feel-good book which captures the Depression era.

Highlights of Discussion: 1. Display of members' quilts.

2. Focus on the community of women in the P.P. Club, as well as our book group.

3. The need for supportive, long-term friends

Attendance: 8 members
