

Morsels for the Mind Book Group

Date: Feb. 2014

Book Title: The Unlikely Pilgrimage of Harold Fry

Hostess: Nancy McQuate

Food Served: Tea Sandwiches, English Trifle, Cashew dill pickle dip, humus bar + crackers

Book Synopsis: Harold is determined to walk 600 miles from Kingsbridge to Berwick-upon-Tweed because he believes that as long as he walks, Queenie will live.

Review: 4.5 star

Reviewers felt the book held charm, humor, & insight into the thoughts & feelings we sometimes bury deep in our hearts. Most felt she was a wise storyteller.

Highlights of Discussion:

The fascinating characters he meets along the way.
Harold's yachting shoes.

How Harold's journey impacts his ~~his~~ mundane life and brings new life to his "stale" marriage.

Attendance: Ann Hill, Nancy S., Nancy M., Ann Starke, Julie Ginny

Suggestions/ Business: